SERVICES NOT REQUIRED. No Jury Trials in Circuit Courts

During June.

Those citizens of the District of Columbia who have been summoned to report for jury service next month in Circuit Court No. 1 and Circuit Court No. 2 will be notified by the United States marshal that it is not necessary for them to perform the duty mentioned. On petition of a large number of attorneys the District Supreme Court has decided not to hold jury trials in the circuit courts during June.

QUITS ACTIVE SERVICE.

Capt. Hanscom Retired With the Rank of Rear Admiral.

Capt. John F. Hanscom, the senior officer of the construction corps of the navy, has been placed on the retired list on account of age, with the rank of rear admiral, because of his services in the army during the war of the rebellion. A native of Maine, Admiral Hanscom entered the navy from Massachusetts in July, 1875, and reached the grade of captain in the construction corps in October, 1888. For several years past he has served as the senior member of boards on changes in naval construction, with headquarters at Philodelphia. He has had nearly twenty-nine years' service, all of which was on shore duty he never having made a cruise. Capt. Hanscom's retirement with advanced rank is due to the fact that he served during the war of the rebellion as a private in a Maine volunteer regiment and private in a Maine volunteer regiment and is in conformity with the provisions of the personnel law. The case is almost without precedent, there being very few cases of such preferment in one branch of the mill-tary service for services rendered in another branch.

YOUNG LADIES OF WASHINGTON SEMINARY ENTERTAIN.

Initiation Festivities Also Indulged in -A Number of Interesting Toasts Responded To.

The annual banquet and initiation ceremonies of the Washington Seminary Alumnae were held at the Teacup Inn last evening. The scene presented when the doors of the dining 100m were thrown open was an attractive one. About the room were palms and ferns which formed a beautiful background for the table, which was very artistically decorated with large centerpieces of pink and white carnations, around which were pink candles, which shed their soft light upon the beaming faces and beautiful gowns of the youthful guests. American beauties were used as corsage bouquets.

The toasts given were most interesting. Miss Lois Dyer, president of the society, introduced Miss Elizabeth McCauley as toast-mistress. The first toast, "Reminiscences," was given by Miss Maria Calvo of Costa Rica. Miss Calvo began by saying that it was with both regret and pleasure that she addressed the members of the alumnae; regret that she was no longer a student at the school of which she had so many pleasant remembrances, and pleasure that she could still keep in touch with her dear old alma Miss Elizabeth Brown of Maryland gave a very witty, original parody on "The Charge of the Light Brigade," which was appropriate for the subject, "Newcorners." All could then appreciate the courage and bravery with which the candidates had marched to their fate in the initiation ceremonies a short time before "Our Teachmonies a short time before. "Our Teachers" was responded to by Miss Dorothy Fox of this city. She expressed feelings of love and gratitude for the teachers, and especially for Mrs. Smallwood, the prin-cipal. Miss Florence Adams of New York responded to "Our Matrons." Miss Adams mentioned several members of the alumnae who had become matrons, and in so doing had made the other members very envious.

Some of the Toasts. Miss Helen Davis of this city gave very witty toast on "The Roses Still Lingering on the Parent Stem." Although her remarks were at first very discouraging to the "lingering roses" she ended by saying that perhaps there was some hope after all, especially since it was leap year. "School Spirit" was responded to by Miss Marie Collier of New Jersey. Miss Collier said that the spirit one showed for a school depended upon one's love for it. The applause which followed her remarks showed both the love, and, therefore, the spirit for alma mater. Mrs. Smallwood then made a few remarks to her "Old Girls."

Those Present. Those who attended were: Mrs. George Thomas Smallwood, Miss Lois Dyer, president; Miss Caroline Smith, vice president; Miss Eva Towles, secretary; Miss Elizabeth McCauley, treasurer; Miss Eva Haddaway, Miss Daisy Burbridge, Miss Edythe Morgan, Miss Bertha Ridenour, Mrs. Floyd Tillman, Miss Katherine Fenno, Mrs. John Arnold, Miss Eliza Green, Miss Mary Herry, Miss Juliet Hobbs, Miss Bessie Hopper, Miss Lillian Pantall, Miss Flora Root, Miss Mathe Cochrane, Miss Ietta Sheehy, Miss Mabel Spencer, Miss Lucile Browne, Miss Bessie Robinson, Miss Jean Tracewell, Miss Bessie Bateman, Miss Myrtle Ensign, Miss Elorance Fisher Miss May Kehoe, Miss Miss Florence Fisher, Miss May Kehoe, Miss Lucile Baker, Miss Aimie Weil, Miss Helen Bundy, Miss Myra Jacobs, Miss Alice Berry, Miss Marie Hazen, Miss Julia Smith, Miss Dorothy Fox, Miss Helen Davis, Miss Hazel Browne, Miss Marie Collier, Miss Florence Haddaway, Miss Elizabeth Brown, Miss Marie Calvo, Miss Florence Adams.

Commencement Sermon. The commencement sermon of Washing ton Seminary was preached on Sunday last at the Church of St. Michael and All Angels by Dr. Turner. There was a special musical service. Dr. Turner's sermon on the text, "Ye are the salt of the earth" was most fitting. He spoke of the Christian church in its individual members as those who must preserve the world and keep it pure. This the church has done through eighteen centuries, in spite of many inconsistencies into which it has inevitably fallen. Among these Christian In-fluences none is so potent as that of Christion women, with cultured minds and pure hearts. Of those who have had great opportunities in the way of intellectual and moral culture much in the way of good influence is demanded. The closing thought was that these young women have a most important part to fill in their future life. Let them be worthy of the opportunities which have been theirs and the world will be better for their living in it.

ITS WORK COMPLETED.

Course of 1903-4 of S. S. Teachers'

Normal College. The Sunday Teachers' Normal College, which is under the direction of the American Society of Religious Education, has completed its year's work. The examinations occurred last Tuesday evening in Wesley M. E. Church, where the sessions have been held. During the evening the alumnae association held a business meeting and elected Mr. J. S. Barker president and Miss Lillian Wetherall secretary. The association voted to hold monthly meeting during the coming year, when the course will be thoroughly reviewed and other work attempted.

The graduating exercises of the college will be held Sunday evening, June 5, in Mount Vernon Methodist Church, when Dr. J. E. Gilbert, president of the faculty, will deliver an address, and Judge Chambers, in behalf of the regents, will present the diplomas. Tomorrow evening a meeting of superintendents has been called for Co-lumbian University for the purpose of adopting measures for the enrollment of the junior class, the members of which will begin their studies in October next.

CAUSES UNEASINESS. Becent Extensive Purchase of Artillery by Venezuela.

Military measures on a large scale begun recently by Venezuela are giving rise to great deal of uneasiness and apprehension here. It is stated to a French company sold Castro's gover million livres' worth . rtillery, which is being placed in fortifications at Puerto Caballo, and other important coast ports. The company also contracted to supply a force of skilled artillery to man the guns for a certain period.

Just what this extensive armament means when Venezuela is so poor is a matter of speculation here, and there is some fear that it, is the forerunner of a repudiation by Venezuela of liability for further payments of installments of indemnity under the awards of the recent arbitrations.
